

Understanding The Interrelation Between International Education And Tourism In Australia

Sabine Muschter¹,

¹ SCU, PhD Candidate, P.O.Box 2027, Byron Bay, 2481, s.muschter.10@scu.edu.au

The aim of the proposed piece of research is to investigate the motivations and behaviours regarding tourism related activities of Europeans studying in Australia. Using quantitative and qualitative methodologies, the primary goal is to evaluate how those students are engaged in travel and tourism activities before and during the studies in Australia.

Key Words

International Education, Tourism, European Students, Australia