

Research in international education

Discussion led by Dr Shanton Chang and Dr Catherine Gomes

This session is a discussion of opportunities for Research in International Education, including the possibility of doing a Research Higher Degree in the area, as well as doing action research in the work that delegates might be doing. There will also be a discussion around the publication of research work.