

ASIC MoneySmart Rookie “An online multi-focal resource to support tertiary student to increase their financial literacy”

Stuart Martin, Chairperson Student Financial Advisors Network, Student Welfare Officer, Student Wellbeing, Victoria University

This presentation is targeted at Student Welfare Officer, Student Advisors, Student Participation Advisors, Counsellors and other University staff members who provide assistance and support to tertiary student in the areas of financial literacy and budgeting.

The presentation will introduce attendees to the MoneySmart Rookie program, which has been developed by the Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC) by:

- Demonstrate its online tools, such as its budgeting tool and financial calculators
- Walk through its financial literacy education programs.
- Show a selection of short video tools
- Demonstrate its publications and posters